

Speaker Disclosures

The following speaker disclosures have been reviewed and any biases mitigated by the Scientific Planning Committee:

Last name	Session(s)	Disclosed Relationships	Mitigation
Patricia Arean	Making psychosocial treatment available to older adults.	National Institutes of Mental Health, Verily Life Sciences, American Psychological Association, Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies	The speaker has no financial conflicts associated with the interventions discussed, she does not receive any royalties or funds from the sale of any intervention discussed in this program.
Paul Blackburn	What It Entails to be a Geriatric Psychiatrist – Meet the Experts	I am a member of the Fountain of Health Speaker's Bureau	The speaker's role on the speaker's bureau for FOH is voluntary and their research grants are not related to the contents of this presentation.
Julia Brassolotto	Creating safer and more welcoming continuing care services for sexual and gender diverse/ Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Queer Two-Spirit Plus people (LGBTQ2S+)	Grants/Research Support: Alberta Innovates (Research Chair); University of Lethbridge (Assistant Professor)	All research claims are supported by empirical evidence.
Amanda Canfield	Geriatric Interest Groups: Supporting trainees with interest in geriatrics to improve the care of Canadian seniors	NGIG, RGIG	Slides were reviewed with faculty supervisors, including a supervisor who is not affiliated with the NGIG or RGIG.
Beverley Cassidy	CBT Express with The Wellness App: Health Behavior Change as First line Medicine	grant from CCABHI	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Pete Chan	Innovative Approaches to Managing Acute and Protracted Withdrawal from Alcohol and Sedative-Hypnotics in Seniors	Janssen-Ortho Brainstim Health Care Vancouver Coastal Health Research Institute	Only generic names of medications will be discussed. Any potential bias has been mitigated to the satisfaction of the planning committee as the speaker will not be including any products for which there is a conflict of interest in his talk, and will be disclosing this conflict at the start of his talk.
Krista Chapman	“Creating safer and more welcoming continuing care services for sexual and gender diverse people (LGBTQ2S+)”	Carewest employee representing Carewest	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.

Speaker Disclosures

The following speaker disclosures have been reviewed and any biases mitigated by the Scientific Planning Committee (cont.):

David Conn	“Project ECHO: Utilizing Virtual Education to Build Capacity in Geriatric Mental Health” National Guidelines for Substance Use Disorders among Older Canadians: From Evidence to Action!	Ministry of Health & LTC, Ontario in the form of a grant. Received an honorarium from Health Canada	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Ari Cuperfain	Geriatric Interest Groups: Supporting trainees with interest in geriatrics to improve the care of Canadian seniors	Ari Cuperfain was a National Geriatric Interest Group (NGIG) executive during 2018-19, and is discussing a project related to the impact of NGIG and local GIGs	Review presentation with faculty and colleagues Present evidence-based data with respect to presentation
Shital Desai	Technology Supporting Resilience in Dementia: Patient-facing and Provider-facing Innovations	This session has received financial support from AGE-WELL in the form of grants and funding to pursue research in the field of ageing and technology and has received in-kind support from Memory and Company and Alzheimers Durham in the form of support to recruit participants for the research studies and use of their premises to conduct research.	AGE-WELL, Memory and Company, Alzheimers Durham and all community partners will be acknowledged in the presentation.
Kate Ducak	Person-Centred Language Matters!	Employee of Schlegel-UW Research Institute for Aging Employee of Behavioural Supports Ontario hosted by the North Bay Regional Health Centre	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Shaen Gingrich	Worskhop: Project ECHO: Utilizing Virtual Education to Build Capacity in Geriatric Mental Health Presenters: David Conn, Lisa Sokoloff, Cindy Grief, Shaen Gingrich	financial support from the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long Term Care in the form of educational funding	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Lisa Howard	Creating safer and more welcoming continuing care services for sexual and gender diverse/ Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Queer Two-Spirit Plus people (LGBTQ2S+)	Assistant Professor, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Lethbridge financial support from University of Lethbridge in the form of an Internal Research Award	All research findings will be supported by empirical evidence

Speaker Disclosures

The following speaker disclosures have been reviewed and any biases mitigated by the Scientific Planning Committee (cont.):

Andrea Iaboni	The Behavioural Supports Ontario-Dementia Observation System (BSO-DOS®): Interdisciplinary Innovation & Collaboration Leading to Objective and Measurable Direct Observation Documentation Technology Supporting Resilience in Dementia: Patient-facing and Provider-facing Innovations A Review of 2018/2019 Top Papers in Geriatric Psychiatry	Scientific advisory board of Winterlight LLC (this is not present a conflict of interest with any of the presentations I am delivering at the conference)	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Tina Kalviainen	Person-Centred Language Matters!	Employee of Schlegel-UW Research Institute for Aging Employee of Behavioural Supports Ontario hosted by the North Bay Regional Health Centre	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Krista Lanctot	CAGP 2019: Cannabis and dementia: weeding through the evidence	I have received/will be receiving a grant or an honorarium from the following for-profit or not-for-profit organizations: AbbVie, Pfizer, CIHR, NIA, Alzheimer Drug Discovery Foundation, Alzheimer's Association	Krista Lanctot has not received funding from any organization supporting this program or any organization whose product(s) are being discussed in this program. No organization is associated with a product that will be discussed in this program. While the off-label use of a cannabinoid is discussed, it is not recommended.
Helen Lavretsky	Resilience and aging	A research grant from Allergan; Royalties from the Oxford University Press and from the Hopkins University Press for books published	The speaker will not discuss the products supported by the grants
Adele Loncar	"Integrating Applied Behaviour Analysis into a Collaborative Practice Model for the Treatment of Responsive Behaviours in LTC Residents living with Dementia"	Mental Health Commission of Canada	Presenter has no conflict of interest in relation to the content in this presentation.
Robert Madan	Baycrest Quick Response Caregiver Tool	This program has received financial support from Ontario Academic Health Sciences Alternate Funding Program Innovation Fund	The work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.

Speaker Disclosures

The following speaker disclosures have been reviewed and any biases mitigated by the Scientific Planning Committee (cont.):

Lesley Myles	Director of Operations, Carewest	funding from Carewest to attend the conference; in-kind support from Alberta Health Services in the form of sharing education and information resources and in development of PPT slides	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Hannah O'Rourke	Acceptability of Personal Contact and Group Activity Interventions to Address Loneliness for People with Dementia	Faculty of Nursing, University of Alberta Professorship in Dementia Care Interventions Canadian Institutes of Health Research Post-doctoral Fellowship	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Kenneth M Schwartz	Baycrest Quick Response Caregiver Tool	financial support from Ontario Academic Health Sciences Alternate Funding Program Innovation Fund; Baycrest AFP Governance Organization	The work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Dallas Seitz	National Guidelines for Substance Use Disorders among Older Canadians: From Evidence to Action! Problem Solving Therapy Workshop A Review of 2018/2019 Top Papers in Geriatric Psychiatry	I participated as a site investigator in a clinical trial sponsored by Hoffmann La Roche.	Dr. Seitz will not be discussing any topics related to his disclosed research funding.
Lisa Sokoloff	"Project ECHO: Utilizing Virtual Education to Build Capacity in Geriatric Mental Health" - CAGP / CCSMH annual conference 2019	This program has received financial support from Ontario Ministry of Health & LTC in the form of educational funding.	Lisa Sokoloff has received NO payment or funding, etc. from any organization supporting this program AND/OR organization whose product(s) are being discussed in this program.
Marie-France Tourigny-Rivard	Advocating for Mental Health Services for Older Adults in Canada: Tools and Strategies	I am a volunteer member of the Advisory Council of the Mental Health Commission of Canada, a not-for-profit organization whose free-access knowledge translation products will be discussed in this workshop. The MHCC will reimburse my travel expenses to present at the CAGP meeting. I do not receive funding from the MHCC and volunteer my time.	There is no financial or promotional reward for the MHCC or Dr Tourigny-Rivard if any of the tools presented in the workshop are utilized by the participants. Participants in the workshop will be free to discuss and consider whether any of the tools may be useful in their planning or advocacy activities.

Speaker Disclosures

The following speaker disclosures have been reviewed and any biases mitigated by the Scientific Planning Committee (cont.):

Nancy Vasil	National Guidelines for Substance Use Disorders among Older Canadians: From Evidence to Action	Grants/Research Support: This program has received financial support from CCSMH in the form of an educational grant. Speakers Bureau/Honoraria: Working Group members received an honorarium for their work on the project. Consulting Fees: None Patents: None Other: This program has received in-kind support from CCSMH in the form of logistical support. Funding to the Canadian Coalition for Seniors Mental Health from Health Canada's Substance Use and Addictions Program	This speaker will not be making medication therapeutic recommendations and the work presented is evidence based. Any biases have been sufficiently addressed to the committee's satisfaction.
Marilyn White-Campbell	Waterloo Wellington Behaviour Support Team (BSOT) Successful Transitions for Older Adults with Opiate Use Disorders: A Case Study	Canadian Coalition For Seniors Mental Health Clinical guidelines for SUD;s honoraria Health Canada Addictions branch funding	This is a government funded grant.
Anthony Yeung	Paradoxical Complete Resolution of Depression, Psychosis, and Suicidal Ideation Following a Traumatic Brain Injury	Medical Consultant for Winterlight Labs, an artificial intelligence start up.	No potential for conflict regarding session identified

#CAGPCCSMH2019

#TheFutureIsResilience

Speaker Disclosures

The following speakers had no conflicts of interest to declare:

Speaker	Session Title(s)
Petal Abdool	CAGP ASM: An immersive simulation to build empathy for geriatric patients.
Timah Black-Geisterfer	"Integrating Applied Behaviour Analysis into a Collaborative Practice Model for the Treatment of Responsive Behaviours in LTC Residents living with Dementia."
Marie-Andrée Bruneau	"Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in Major Neurocognitive Disorder: A Case Series"
Keri-Leigh Cassidy	National Guidelines for Substance Use Disorders among Older Canadians: From Evidence to Action! What It Entails to be a Geriatric Psychiatrist – Meet the Experts
Nick Feltz	"Integrating Applied Behaviour Analysis into a Collaborative Practice Model for the Treatment of Responsive Behaviours in LTC Residents living with Dementia"
Damien Gallagher	"A Review of 2018/2019 Top Papers in Geriatric Psychiatry"
Leslie Giddens-Zuker	Beyond Dementia: An interdisciplinary approach to Managing Serious Mental Illness in Long Term Care
Christene Gordon	Nothing About Us Without Us: Creating the first Canadian Charter of Rights for People with Dementia
Caroline Gosselin	Electroconvulsive Therapy in Canada: Emerging Trends in Geriatric Practice: Part 1 Electroconvulsive Therapy in Canada: Emerging Trends in Geriatric Practice: Part 2
Cindy Grief	Project ECHO: Utilizing Virtual Education to Build Capacity in Geriatric Mental Health
Debbie Hewitt Colborne	The Behavioural Supports Ontario-Dementia Observation System (BSO-DOS©): Interdisciplinary Innovation & Collaboration Leading to Objective and Measurable Direct Observation Documentation
Mary Hynes	Aging with Resilience - Surviving, Responding and Adapting
Kelly Kay	Integrated Mental Health and Medical Care in Action: Reports from the Frontlines of Clinical, System Planning, Leadership and Advocacy Efforts

Speaker Disclosures

The following speakers had no conflicts of interest to declare (cont.):

Christopher Kitamura	1. National Guidelines for Substance Use Disorders among Older Canadians: From Evidence to Action! 2. Integrating CBT for Insomnia (CBTi) into your practice
Sivan Klil-Drori	Exercise for late-life depression: systematic review and meta-analysis of randomized controlled trials
Ashok Krishnamoorthy	Innovative Approaches to Managing Acute and Protracted Withdrawal from Alcohol and Sedative-Hypnotics in Seniors
Lara Nixon	Reducing harm related to high risk behaviours among formerly homeless older adults: a Calgary-based Qualitative Case Study
Klara Pokrzywko	“Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in Major Neurocognitive Disorder: A Case Series”
Kiran Rabheru	CBT Express: Using the Wellness App for Health Behavior Change and Resilience National Guidelines for Substance Use Disorders among Older Canadians: From Evidence to Action! Behavioral Support Teams in Acute Care: Lessons learned in Five Years With Potential for Scaling Up Electroconvulsive Therapy in Canada: Emerging Trends in Geriatric Practice: Part 1 Electroconvulsive Therapy in Canada: Emerging Trends in Geriatric Practice: Part 2
Aviva Rostas	Beyond Dementia: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Managing Serious Mental Illness in Long-Term Care
Sophie Sapergia	Creating safer and more welcoming continuing care services for sexual and gender diverse people (LGBTQ2S+)
Valerie Scarfone	Integrated Mental Health and Medical Care in Action
Michael Trew	Medical Assistance in Dying
Elisabeth Van Bussel	The Behavioural Supports Ontario-Dementia Observation System (BSO-DOS®): Interdisciplinary Innovation & Collaboration Leading to Objective and Measurable Direct Observation Documentation
Robyn Waxman	Electroconvulsive Therapy in Canada: Emerging Trends in Geriatric Practice

#CAGPCCSMH2019

#TheFutureIsResilience